

OPEN HORIZON RECORDS

PRESS & MEDIA KIT | Music Beyond the Horizon

About Open Horizon Records

Open Horizon Records is an independent music label creating original songs that explore the moments and emotions of life. From uplifting, feel-good tracks to reflective songs about love, change, resilience and remembrance, the label aims to make music that connects with listeners. Its guiding phrase is “Music Beyond the Horizon”.

Music and releases

The Open Horizon Records catalogue includes the album Every Season Leaves a Mark and songs including Chasing Joy, Let the Leaves Fall, Letting Go, Best Is Yet to Come, Dancing in the Rain, I Chose You, I'm Still Here, Lead Me Home, A Symphony of Sensors, Hearts Echo, A Perfect Day, Rise of Voices and Unknowing Goodbye. Release dates, track availability and platform links should be checked before publication.

Bespoke music

Alongside its original releases, Open Horizon Records creates bespoke songs for weddings, anniversaries, birthdays, celebrations, tributes and memorials. The service is developed in collaboration with each customer to turn their personal story into an original, produced song.

For radio, press and playlist curators

For airplay, interviews, playlist consideration, review copies, artwork or other press enquiries, contact: openhorizonrecords@outlook.com. Please request broadcast-ready audio and any further release information directly; the downloadable kit does not grant broadcasting or reproduction rights.

Media usage

Logos and cover images are provided for editorial coverage, reviews, interviews and relevant playlist/radio promotion of Open Horizon Records. Please credit Open Horizon Records, retain the artwork as supplied and request permission for advertising, merchandise, commercial reuse or substantial alteration. All rights remain with their respective owners.

Press materials included in the ZIP: original logo assets and selected release artwork. No audio masters or unpublished release details are included.